

Pamela J. Knauer Appointed to the Board of Trustees of the Monmouth County SPCA

February 18, 2010 – Red Bank, NJ – Pamela J. Knauer, Esq., a shareholder in the law firm of Giordano Halleran & Ciesla, P.C., was recently appointed to the Board of Trustees of the Monmouth County SPCA. An active volunteer with the Monmouth County SPCA, Ms. Knauer has served on the Dog Walk and Pet Fair Committee and has also legally represented various non-profit animal welfare organizations over the past few years. Ms. Knauer is a business lawyer in the Corporate and Securities Law Department of Giordano Halleran & Ciesla, P.C.

The Monmouth County SPCA is a private, not-for profit 501(c)3 organization supported solely by donations and modest fees, led by a volunteer board of trustees. The mission of the organization is to protect and advocate for all animals. They are dedicated to enforcing animal cruelty laws; providing a safe haven for homeless, abused and abandoned pets while they await adoption; reducing pet over-population through spay/neutering; and cultivating their humane treatment through education and service as a valuable community resource.

Giordano, Halleran & Ciesla, P.C. is a multi-specialty law firm dedicated to providing sophisticated, complex legal services and solutions. The attorneys maintain personal relationships and gather in-depth knowledge of clients' businesses and industries to construct both sound legal advice and effective strategies to resolve business issues. With a focus on responsiveness and producing results with outstanding value to their clients' bottom line, the firm provides experienced legal representation in a wide variety of practice areas, including: Corporate and Business; Creditors' Rights and Bankruptcy; Environmental; Healthcare; Intellectual Property and Technology; Labor and Employment; Litigation; Real Estate, Land Use and Development; and Trusts and Estates.
