

June 7, 2007

MARC D. POLICASTRO JOINS THE GIORDANO FIRM AS SHAREHOLDER

MIDDLETOWN, NJ – Giordano, Halleran & Ciesla announces that Marc D. Policastro of Little Silver has joined the firm as a shareholder.

Policastro, of the firm's Environmental and Land Use Practice Areas, concentrates his practice in development, environmental compliance cases, transactional matters, land use, zoning and business counseling. He has represented developers, lenders, borrowers and municipal boards in myriad land use contexts, including commercial and residential development. He concentrates on complex remediation cases and general environmental compliance counseling. He has significant experience in Industrial Site Recovery Act, Spill Act, and related hazardous substance regulatory matters. Policastro also has significant experience in redevelopment of contaminated sites.

He is a graduate of the University of Richmond, E. Claiborne Robins School of Business, where he received a bachelor of science degree in business administration, concentrating in finance and marketing. He received his law degree from Seton Hall University School of Law, where he received the Raymond del Tufo Award for highest achievement in Constitutional Law and served as Notes and Comments Editor for the Seton Hall Constitutional Law Journal.

Policastro is listed in Chambers USA - America's Leading Business Lawyers 2006-2007 in the Real Estate: Zoning/Land Use practice area. In September 2004, he was selected by the New Jersey Law Journal for inclusion in its top "40 Under 40" list, noting the leading 40 attorneys in the state under the age of 40. Policastro is a member of the New Jersey State Bar Association and its Land Use and Environmental Law Sections, the Monmouth County Bar Association and the Mortgage Bankers Association. He is admitted to practice in New Jersey and New York.

###